ORIGIN

25X1X6

1. The nationalized Poldina Hut Steel Works in Kladno have decided to retain Franz Himmelburger, the German citizen who was one of the managers before the war, as a directing consultant. Himmelburger will receive Czechoslovak citizenship very soon.
2. The retention of Himmelburger is partly because of his business qualifications and partly because of the financial assistance he gave to various Czechoslovak underground groups during the German occupation. Himmelburger is also credited with having handed over valuable technical data on German airplane construction to the Allies during the war.
